-HANDKERCHIEFS. -Our elegants have been trying to introduce silk pocket-handkerchiefs into the fashionable world. The present indications are that they have succeeded. We do not refer to those great red and yellow handkerchiefs that were such favorites with our Puritanical ancestors, but the silk handkerchiefs of modern times, of the present season. They are very popular with our English beaux, and hence will gain favor among New York fashionables. The borders are narrow, coming in light, soft colors. The centres are pure white; some have white satin figures to relieve their plainness; monograms worked in the corner.

CARROTS. - In volume 13, of the American Farmer of 1831, there appears an article quoted from the Genessee Farmer on carrots, in which the writer says that from one to two thousand bushels of this succulent root can be raised on an acre of ground without impover-ishing the land. The writer goes on to say, this may seem a large estimate, but it is nevertheless true, and if you wish to test the matter, try it next season. Horses will work on carrots, nearly or-quiet as well as on oats, and keep in much better order.

A GOOD SHOT. - Dufferton-"Well, I could have sworn I hit the "bull' that time." Officer in charge (having a look through his glass)-"No, but very near. You've Lilled the cow in the field to the loft!

UNSETTLED WAR CLAIMS. AT ITS LAST SESSION CONGRESS, AS an amendment to the army appropriation bill, directed the President to appoint a commission to ascertain and adjust the claims of all loyal citizens in the South for Quartermaster and Commissary supplies furnished to the United States during the war. Under the head of quartermaster are included hay, straw, wood, rent of houses and lots, grain, horses and mules, &c.— As commissary stores are included cattle and hogs, flour, corn meal, &c. As yet the rules which will be adopted by the commission concerning proof of loyalty and the furnishing of supplies are unknown. It is very necessary, however, that all claimants should have their claims presented at once, so as to have whatever benefit may result from priority of application, if any.

CHARLES WHITTLESEY, UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER,

-AND-ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR IN BANKRUPTCY.

Congress having just amended the Bankrupt law so that nearly all parties can be discharged from their debts unobstructed by the fifty per cent. clause, so-called, another opportunity offers to secure the benefits of this most effective and permanent measure of rollef. The above-named will make bankrupt business a specialty; will procure discharges on the most moderate terms, and transact all business in that line at prices which cannot fail to be satisfactory. Being United States Commissioner he will endeavor to visit the different counties on court days, and thus save parties the trouble and expense of several trips to Alexandria in beginning and proceeding with their cases. Discharges can be obtained here before Register Hill as promptly as in Richmond or elsowhere, and at much less expense to parties. It may be added that the Bankrupt act, in connection with the Homestead exemption, which it is now believed will be secured to the bankrupt under the bankrupt law, is the only real relief now offered to parties struggling in the hopeless bondage of old debts.
